

CONTENTS

1. WOMEN AND THE IDEA OF A RENAISSANCE	13
Did women have a Renaissance?	13
Reading the evidence	14
2. CONDUCT PRESCRIPTIONS	17
Constructions of the ideal	17
Evidence of the Real	21
3. LAW, POLITICS, AND WORK	27
The legal rights of women	27
Queen Elizabeth and women's public role	31
Women's work opportunities outside the home	35
4. EDUCATION	37
Theoretical positions	37
Women's learning in reality	41
5. PERFORMED RELIGION	45
The promise of spiritual equality	45
Women's appropriation of religion	46
6. HUMANISM	49
Woman's traditional role and the function of learning	49
Evaluating humanist influence	52
7. WOMEN'S WRITING	55
What did Renaissance women write?	55
Obstacles to writing	57

TINA Krontiris

Strategies to enter the field	60
Opposition to oppressive ideas	61
 BIBLIOGRAPHIES	 63
Works Cited	63
Further Reading	66
Editions of Primary Texts	67
Reference Volumes	68